TCL C725 65" QLED 4K HDR Dolby Vision Google TV TV license

Product Overview

TCL C725 65" QLED 4K HDR Dolby Vision Google TV TV license required

Specifications

Overview:

With more picture enhancing features including Quantum Dot technology and Wide Colour Gamut, the C725 Series delivers incredible boldness and realism to your screen. Producing more colours, more contrast and more clarity in 4K resolution, enjoy stunning picture quality in all your shows, movies and games. And with Onkyo audio delivering premium HiFi quality sound with loads of depth, power and clarity a C725 Series TV can easily become the centrepiece of your home entertainment.

Features:

4K QLED

Ultra-high definition content is filtered through a layer of over a billion Quantum Dot nanocrystals. Stunning 4K display is enhanced with the addition of the latest in high dynamic ranging. Enjoy vibrant, impeccable images - with a leading 100%+ color volume and beautiful brightness.

Dynamic Dolby Vision

Bring cinematic visuals home with Dolby Vision technology. Dolby Vision enhances the appearance of Dolby exclusive content, displaying a greater number of colors, increasing contrast, and boosting brightness levels.

HDR 10+

This is zero compromise TV. HDR10+ allows content providers to include more metadata which can be processed - for TV and gaming just as creators intended. HDR 10+ optimizes images frame by frame, boosting color saturation limits, and turning up the contrast.

MEMC

MEMC (Motion Estimation & Motion Compensation) makes picture processing silky smooth. An intelligent algorithm delivers a refresh rate of 60 -fps -displaying high-res entertainment in native speed, or upgrading lower frame content. Fast-moving, action-packed scenes look crisper, with no blurring. When the action gets intense, so does your display.

AiPQ Engine

ComX Computers

Product Specification Sheet

A TCL algorithm processes content in real time, detecting environment and upscaling display. Ai PQ optimizes pictures according to content; so oceans appear bluer, and rainforests more lush.

Theatrical Dolby Atmos

Dolby Atmos delivers multi-dimensional audio , powered outside of traditional channel restrictions. Enjoy incredible clarity, with greater emotion, and room-filling, immersive sound.

ONKYO

C725 features an immersive sound solution courtesy of a premium ONKYO sound system. ONKYO speakers elevate the entertainment with cinema quality audio apparatus, designed to take content into the next dimension.

Android TV

Enhance your entertainment experience with the latest Android R system. Access 7,000+ Apps and 700,000+ shows/movies in one place*. Enjoy TV, music, movies, games, and more - personalized content recommendations can be easily accessed, plus download more favourites via the Google Play Store. In addition, Chromecast enables effortless mirroring of photos, videos, and music directly from your devices.

YouTube x Netflix x Prime Video

Never run out of things to watch with the world's most popular streaming Apps pre-installed. Enjoy an endless stream of content on-demand - with latest releases, old favorites, and live streaming.

TCL Channel

Tired of trying to find the latest trend-setting TV? TCL Channel is an enhanced waterfall-flow interface, designed in a content-first display across your favorite apps. Access the hottest and best in local and global entertainment, collected across a variety of platforms.

Hands-Free Voice Control 2.0

Powered by Google Assistant, an improved Hands-Free Voice Control system frees you forever from the remote control. Switch channels, set reminders, and explore streaming services via simple voice commands- just say "Hey Google".

Mirroring

Cast content directly from your mobile device to your TV, for larger-scale display.

MagiConnect

MagiConnect empowers you to take a screenshot of live TV, share content via social media, cast audio / video from your mobile devices, and much more.

AI x IoT

TCL is dedicated to making life more intelligent through a focus on AI x IoT. Enjoy more connectivity and hands-free control, plus connect and control any Google Home enabled device via your TCL TV. Set the temperature, dim lights, and control your robot vacuum with a simple command from the sofa - welcome to the home of tomorrow.

Google Duo

Effortlessly make one-to-one, or join group calls with Google's video chat App. Send notes, voice or video memos, and much more.
