Overview:

Beauty is not just on the outside, it's on the inside too when it comes to LUMI's M06 Sit Stand frames. The initial attraction might come from the eye-pleasing appearance of the clean, smooth exterior surface, but it's what inside that will keep the love alive. Inside each lifting column is an actuator mechanism that provides smooth and stable height adjustments. The programmable digital controller offers advanced memory and timer functions that lead to healthier work habits tailored to the individual. The M06 incorporates LUMI's proprietary Gyro-Current collision avoidance system that offers improved sensitivity and detection of under desk objects during height adjustments. Available in popular colors including Slate Black, Tech Grey or Winter White. Treat yourself to a new approach to daily work - start feeling better and enjoying life more- choose LUMI's M06 Series today!
