Overview:

Hikvision DS-K4H255-LZ Value Magnetic Lock ZL Bracket

The Hikvision DS-K4H255-LZ is a durable ZL bracket designed for use with the DS-K4H255S magnetic lock. Made from high strength aluminum alloy with a sandblasted and oxidized surface finish, the bracket provides a secure mounting solution for access control installations.

Description:

The Hikvision DS-K4H255-LZ Value Magnetic ZL Bracket is designed to simplify the installation of compatible magnetic locks while providing reliable support for the lock body and suction plate. Its L bracket secures the magnetic lock body, while the Z bracket supports the suction plate and includes an antiskid design with adjustment capability for easier positioning.

This Hikvision magnetic lock bracket is suited to access control applications where a secure and properly aligned mounting arrangement is required. The aluminum alloy construction offers a strong yet practical solution for installations using the DS-K4H255S magnetic lock.

Features:

Hikvision DS-K4H255-LZ Mounting Design

The bracket combines L and Z bracket sections to accommodate the magnetic lock and suction plate. The adjustable structure helps achieve suitable positioning during installation, while the antiskid design helps keep the suction plate securely positioned.

Key points include:

- Designed for Hikvision DS-K4H255S magnetic lock
- L bracket for fixing the lock body
- Z bracket for securing the suction plate
- Antiskid design for improved plate stability
- Adjustable structure for installation positioning
- High strength aluminum alloy construction
- Sandblasted and oxidized surface finish

Durable Access Control Bracket Construction

The DS-K4H255-LZ uses high strength aluminum alloy to provide a robust mounting solution for access control systems. Its sandblasting and oxidation treatment provides a practical surface finish suitable for professional installations.
