Dell Pro 11-14 EcoLoop Urban Sleeve - CV4425

Durable, lightweight, and crafted with sustainability in mind, the Dell Pro 11-14 EcoLoop Urban Sleeve offers easy portability with a retractable handle, ensuring protection and convenience wherever you go.

Description:

The Dell EcoLoop Urban Sleeve is designed for laptops between 11 and 14 inches, combining eco-friendly materials with water resistance and padded foam for reliable protection. With a zippered pocket for accessories and a modern heather gray finish, it provides a balance of functionality and style, making it ideal for professionals and students who need everyday laptop protection.

Features:

Key Highlights

- Fits laptops from 11 to 14 inches
- Lightweight design with retractable handle
- Zippered pocket for accessories and essentials
- Foam padding with 300D woven fabric for extra durability
- Water-resistant fabric exterior
- Stylish heather gray finish

Material and Build

Made from 300D woven fabric with foam padding, the sleeve ensures a soft yet protective barrier around your laptop. The water-resistant fabric exterior adds an extra layer of security against spills and light rain.

Portability and Ease of Use

The integrated retractable handle makes it simple to carry on the go. When not needed, the handle tucks away seamlessly for a clean, minimal look.

Design and Style

Its sleek heather gray color blends modern aesthetics with professional appeal, making it suitable for both work and casual use.

Why Choose This Sleeve

This Dell EcoLoop Urban Sleeve strikes a balance between protection, style, and sustainability. Whether commuting to work, heading to class, or traveling, it offers reliable laptop protection without adding bulk.
